Colonel Maude had a brilliant military career and received the Victoria Cross for the following service :—This officer steadily and cheerily pushed on with his men and bore down the desperate opposition of the enemy though with the loss of one-third of his artillerymen. Sir James Outram adds that this attack appeared to him to indicate no reckless or foolhardy daring but the calm heroism of a true soldier, who fully appreciates the difficulties and dangers of the task he has undertaken ; and that but for Captain Maude's nerve and coolness on this trying occasion the Army could not have advanced.—Extract from Field Force Orders of the late Major-General Havelock, dated October 17th, 1857.
